

Cuba and Trinidad-Tobago Sign Trade Cooperation Accord

Havana, June 12 (RHC)-- The Chambers of Commerce of Cuba and Trinidad-Tobago signed a bilateral cooperation accord in Havana on Thursday to exchange information on investment opportunities and the main products offered on their markets.

Cuban Chamber of Commerce President Celia Labora and her counterpart from Trinidad, Catherine Kumar, signed the documents during a meeting of delegations from their countries.

The accord will allow Trinidadian business people to access all the information related to the Cuban market and its new prospects for foreign investment. The agreement will also give access to details about the Special Development Zone in the Cuban western Mariel Harbor and the portfolio that contains over 200 investment projects valued at over 8 billion dollars, according to the Prensa Latina news agency.
