

Ten Killed in Car Bomb Blast in Iraqi Capital

Baghdad, June 15 (RHC)-- At least 10 people have been killed in a car bomb explosion near a market in the Iraqi capital, Baghdad. Police said the bomb attack was carried out on Sunday night when a vehicle with the explosives hit a market in Baghdad's Qahira neighborhood.

Over 20 people were also wounded, police said, adding that several shops and cars were burned and damaged in the attack.

No group or individual has yet claimed responsibility for the attack, but the Takfiri ISIL terrorist group has on several times claimed responsibility for such attacks across Iraq over the past few months.

On Saturday, the terrorists detonated four explosives-laden cars in a bomb attack against a local headquarters of the Iraqi volunteer forces in the area of Hajjaj, which lies on the Tikrit-Baiji road in Salahuddin Province, killing 14 Iraqi army soldiers. ISIL claimed responsibility for the bombing.
