

Veterans of Granma and Moncada Attack Receive Homage from Confederation of Cuban Workers

Havana, July 15 (RHC) --- A group of veterans of the attack on the Moncada and Carlos Manuel de Céspedes garrisons and also members of Granma's expeditionary force were honored by the national leadership of the Confederation of Cuban Workers, CTC, for their combat actions in 1953 and 1956, which ignited the Cuban Revolution.

Ulises Guilarte de Nacimiento, general secretary of this labor organization, led the leaders of the trade union movement who participated in the meeting, held Tuesday morning at Palacio de los Trabajadores, CTC headquarters, where he briefed the veterans on the tasks that the trade union movement faces.

Radio Habana Cuba