

Israeli Settlers Firebomb Palestinian Home, Killing 18- Month-Old Baby

Ramallah, July 31 (RHC)-- In news from the West Bank, a Palestinian baby has died after Israeli settlers reportedly threw firebombs into the family's home early this morning. Graffiti scrawled on walls near the homes read "Revenge" in Hebrew.

The child's parents and four-year-old brother were also severely injured.

Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu called the firebombing "an act of terrorism in every respect."
