

Fidel Castro: an Intimate Portrait at the José Martí Memorial

A book of photos of the historical leader of the Cuban Revolution by Alex Castro was launched at the José Martí Memorial in Revolution Square.

Fidel Castro: an Intimate Portrait by one of Fidel Castro's sons, photographer Alex Castro, is reportedly full of unique, suggestive and beautiful images. According to Cuban President, Raúl Castro's aide, Abel Prieto, the photos look into the inner universe of the leader and his personality. Prieto also pointed out that Alex Castro has been able to portray the vivacious vitality of Fidel Castro's penetrating and direct eyes, which have been able to see so much and far beyond.

The pictures are reportedly the photos that a son makes of his father. The author says that the book shows the close relationship with friends who have come to see Fidel Castro for years not on an official visit, photos of the Cuban leader, reflecting, thinking, reading.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/cultura/65796-fidel-castro-an-intimate-portrait-at-the-jose-marti-memorial>

Radio Habana Cuba