

Israeli Forces Kill Two More Palestinians in West Bank

Ramallah, November 14 (RHC)-- Israeli forces have killed two more Palestinians in the occupied West Bank as dozens more are injured in violent clashes in another Day of Rage.

The Israelis gunned down one Palestinian during clashes near the West Bank city of Ramallah on Friday, the Palestinian Health Ministry said.

A statement from the ministry announced "the death of a young man, Lafi Yusuf Awad, 22 years old, from the village of Budrus in the district of Ramallah, (killed) by a bullet from Israeli forces."

Palestinian medical sources in al-Ahli Hospital also confirmed on Friday that Hassan al-Bo, 21, had died after he was hit in the heart by live ammunition during a demonstration in the city of Hebron, south of the occupied city of Jerusalem.

Meanwhile, a series of Israeli attacks on peaceful Palestinian demonstrations injured dozens, with Palestine's Red Crescent saying 11 people were shot with live fire as they were attending a peaceful gathering in Bireh, north of Ramallah.

It said four others were wounded in similar incidents in al-Khalil and Qalqiliya, while another 14 were victims of Israel's use of rubber-coated steel bullets against the demonstrators.

Other reports said a medic was reportedly shot in the ear during a protest near al-Azza refugee camp in the city of Bethlehem.
