

Cuban Students March in Havana in Homage to 8 Medical Students Murdered 144 Years Ago

Havana, November 28 (RHC)-- More than 12 thousand Cuban students, members of the Federation of University Students (FEU), marched in Havana to the mausoleum built in honor of the eight medical students shot dead by Spanish colonial forces 144 years ago, on November 27th 1871.

Friday's march was also dedicated to members of Cuba's Henry Reeve Medical Brigade Specialized in Disasters and Emergency Situations.

Participants included Cuban high school students and also foreign medical students, who are studying here in Cuba on scholarships in the framework of Cuba's cooperation programs with their respective countries.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/nacionales/77223-cuban-students-march-in-havana-in-homage-to-8-medical-students-murdered-144-years-ago>

Radio Habana Cuba