

Cuban Heroes Visit Birthplace of Fidel and Raúl Castro

Holguín, December 2 (RHC)-- Heroes of the Republic of Cuba Gerardo Hernández, Antonio Guerrero, Rene Gonzalez, Ramón Labañino, Fernando González visited the eastern province of Holguín, where they toured the municipality of Biran -- the birthplace of Cuban Revolution Leader Fidel Castro and President Raúl Castro.

While in Biran, the Cuban Five -- as these five men are known internationally -- talked with local authorities and residents, whom they thanked for their warm hospitality and their support for the international campaign to free the Five from U.S. prisons.

Also in Holguín, the Cuban heroes visited an exhibition of paintings by Antonio Guerrero, one of the Cuban Five. Antonio explained that the paintings on display, featuring Cuban revolutionary women, were the result of years of work, while he was imprisoned in the U.S.

The Cuban Five also met in Holguín with visiting solidarity activists from Mexico, Spain, Canada, Costa Rica, Austria and Australia.
