

South Korean Movies at Havana Film Festival

The International Latin American Film Festival is having a South Korean film screening for the first time in 35 year.

The section within the festival is running seven movies which have received both critics and audiences acclaim worldwide, including Breathless, Youth Delinquency, In Another Country (2012), Hanji (2011), The Client (2011), Madeo (2009) and Poetry (2010), all of them filmed with high-definition technology.

The Havana Film Festival also includes screenings of German, Czech, Polish, Spanish, British, Italian, Canadian and Caribbean movies.
