

Speaker of Namibian National Assembly to Visit Cuba

Windhoek, January 20 (RHC)-- Cuba's Ambassador to Namibia, Giraldo Mazola, has said that the speaker of the African country's National Assembly Peter H. Katjavivi will pay a brief official visit to Cuba next week.

Mazola explained that the Namibian legislative leader will attend Havana's International Conference "With All and for the Good of All" on the life and work of Cuban National Hero José Martí.

During a brief exchange with the Cuban ambassador in the Namibian capital, Katjavivi said he wants to learn from the Cuban experience, thus contributing to further strengthened friendship and cooperation ties between both governments and peoples.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/nacionales/81818-speaker-of-namibian-national-assembly-to-visit-cuba>

Radio Habana Cuba