

Cuban, U.S. Lawmakers Hold Talks in Havana

Havana, January 28 (RHC)-- Deputies and former members of the National Assembly of People's Power met Wednesday in Havana with legislators from the U.S. State of New Jersey, who are currently on a visit here.

The U.S. legislators expressed satisfaction with the meetings and talks they've had already with the Cuban lawmakers, during which both sides urged strengthened dialogue and cooperation between our two nations.

They also described as very positive the meetings of legislators from the two countries over the past several months to discuss issues of common interest.
