

Over 300 al-Nusra Terrorists Killed in Clashes with Syrian Forces

Damascus, February 8 (RHC)-- Syrian government troops have killed over 300 members of the al-Qaeda-linked al-Nusra Front group during clashes in the northwestern Aleppo province.

The Takfiri terrorists were killed near the village of Ratian, during the Syrian forces' latest offensive in the province, the al-Mayadeen television network reported on Sunday.

Al-Nusra has confirmed the deaths stating that they occurred over the last few days during heavy fighting in the region. Syrian forces backed by Russian air support are currently engaged in one of their most significant campaigns since Moscow joined the battle against Daesh Takfiri terrorists September 30th last year.

The foreign-backed conflict in Syria, which began in March 2011, has reportedly claimed the lives of more than 260,000 people and displaced almost half of the country's population.

Radio Habana Cuba