

Cuban Vice President Meets with U.S. Chamber of Commerce Authorities

Washington, February 16 (RHC)-- Cuban Minister for Foreign Trade and Investment Rodrigo Malmierca visited the offices of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, which represents the interests of more than 3 million U.S. businesses.

At the Chamber, Malmierca was received by its President Thomas Donahue and by Myron Brilliant, Executive Vice President and Head of International Affairs.

The Cuban official also held talks with former U.S. Commerce Secretary Carlos Gutiérrez, who was recently appointed Chairman of the U.S.-Cuba Business Council, and with entrepreneurs and executives representing different sectors.

Malmierca was accompanied at the meetings by Orlando Hernández Guillén, president of Cuba's Chamber of Commerce, and by authorities from the country's Foreign Ministry and the Cuban National Bank.
