

Congressional Delegation Will Accompany President Obama on Historic Cuba Trip

Washington, March 8 (RHC)-- U.S. President Barack Obama will be accompanied on his historic visit to Cuba later this month by up to 20 members of the Senate and House of Representatives, U.S. congressional sources said on Monday.

Details were still being worked out, but the sources told Reuters the White House hoped the delegation would include both Republicans and Democrats, to underscore bipartisan support for Obama's moves toward normalizing relations with the neighboring Caribbean state.

Obama will visit Cuba March 21st and 22nd.
