

Paraguay Farmers Demand Agrarian Reform and Better Governance

Asuncion, Mar 17 (RHC) Hundreds of farmers are grouping in Asuncion from Wednesday to hold Thursday a day of massive protests amid reinforced security.

The farmers, in addition to the massive demonstration, will hold debates on the reality of rural youth and women, and will march to demand the implementation of a true agrarian reform, and for better governance since they resent the government of President Horacio Cartes.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/internacionales/87574-paraguay-farmers-demand-agrarian-reform-and-better-governance>

Radio Habana Cuba