

Lula da Silva Encourages Vice President to Win the Government Seat in Elections, Not with the Impeachment of Dilma Rousseff

Brasilia, April 6 (RHC) Former Brazilian President Luiz Inacio Lula da Silva, said that if Vice President Michel Temer wishes to become the new president, it should be by winning elections, not with tricks to bring down democratically elected President Dilma Rousseff.

During a meeting at the Metallurgy Union of ABC of solidarity with Dilma, Lula told Temer to wait to assume power, following the political trial the opposition is cooking up against the President.

Lula da Silva invited the Unions to rally in support of the Workers' Party and of Dilma Rousseff, whom the right wing intends to involve in a case of corruption in the public company Petrobras, and make Congress impeach her.
