

Lenca Women Urge for Justice for Murdered Honduran Indigenous Leader Berta Cáceres

Tegucigalpa, Apr 6 (RHC) A group of women of the Lenca ethnica chained themselves together to protest at Honduras Police Offices, in Tegucigalpa, in demand for justice for murdered indigenous leader and ecologist Berta Cáceres.

During the picketing, the daughter of the murdered social activist, called on the authorities to throw light on her mother's homicide which she considers intimidation, and an attempt to bring down the Civic Council of Indigenous and Popular Organizations and derail the defense of the rights of these people in Honduras.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/internacionales/89668-lenca-women-urge-for-justice-for-murdered-honduran-indigenous-leader-berta-caceres>

Radio Habana Cuba