

Equatorial Guinea Awards Cuban Ambassador with State Decoration

Havana, June 3 (RHC)-- Cuban ambassador to Equatorial Guinea, Pedro Doña Santana, was awarded that nation's Grand Cross of the Order of Independence.

The decoration was bestowed on the outgoing Cuban diplomat by Equatorial Guinea President Teodoro Obiang. The Cuban ambassador expressed satisfaction to have served in Equatorial Guinea and having met President Obiang.

Recipients of Equatorial Guinea's Grand Cross of the Order of Independence are considered favorite children of this African nation.
